Event: Savitribai Phule Jayanti

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Khanage S.G.

No. of Participants: 25

About the Event: In 1851, Savitribai Phule founded three schools that taught over 150 girls. Most schools at that time were only meant for those from the upper castes but Savitribai Phule and her husband started schools for 'untouchables'. Poetry was her passion and Savitribai Phule wrote about the importance of education in her poems. As a social reformer, she was sensitive towards the needs of women and girls. Savitribai Phule was only nine when she was married to 13-year-old Jyoti rao Phule. However, her husband educated her and trained her to become a teacher. To honor the reformer for her undying efforts towards education, especially women and girls, the University of Pune was renamed Savitribai Phule University in 2014.

No. of Participants: 105

About the Event: Dr. N. J Paulbudhe pharmacy college Ahmednagar ranged the seminar on the topic Woman's Hygiene (Truth and superstitions about menstrual period by V Swapnil Shirsekar (Marketing Manager at Setup Foundation, Wa Maharashtra, India), Dr. Ashlesha Bhandarkar (Program organizer), M. Kam Sir (Zonal Head of Step Up) Women are far more superior than men because they have that one power power to give birth to a new life At the same time I (Swapnil Shirsekar) understood that the phenomenon that offers this power to a woman is always given less attention. The phenomenon is no other than 'Blooded Menstruation'. I observed that it is the subject that is not talked about in public, or even in a family. Every woman, every family eagerly waits for the arrival of a new baby in their home, but unfortunately everybody feels awkward speaking about the power of menstruation. If this is the case in a city like suburbs, how horrible must be the situation in my own rural areas? Then I decided to come forward to work against this social untouched taboo.

The keynote speaker: Mr. Swapnil Shirsekar & Dr. Ashlesha Bhandarkar gave a speech about Managing & raising awareness about menstrual hygiene.
